

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY; FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1883.

NO. 98.

New tree molasses, of last year's crop, will soon put in an appearance.

A boy of seventeen years old is in jail at Scottsville, for stealing a horse.

Mrs. ELIZABETH EWING's residence burned at Owingsville. Loss, $4,000.

The Exchange Bank, Mt. Sterling, has increased its capital from $50,000 to $100,000.

The assessors of Nicholas, Robertson and Harrison counties are all one-legged men.

The total taxable gallons of whisky for February is 936,944, and for March, 1,276,587.

A good medicinal tonic, with real merit, is Brown's Iron Bitters, so all druggists say.

The new light Artillery company, of Frankfort, will go to Carter county next week with the troops.

WM. FRENCH, a C. & O. brakeman, fell from a moving freight train, near Lexington, and was seriously injured.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company have decided to build a double track at the earliest practical moment.

WIGGINS, a Canadian weather merchant, predicts a grand old United States storm and double-back-acting blizzard for next Friday.

BILLY PURNELL, one of our cleverest young attorneys, has no announced opposition yet, in his candidacy for the office of Mayor.

The Building and Loan Association will have $1,000 to loan at auction on Tuesday night, Feb. 13th. Over 950 shares have been taken.

H. B. PORTER, JR., and George Glover, of Maysville, just convicted for burglary, were pardoned by Gov. Blackburn before they were sentenced.

THE Crawford House, Cincinnati, has made every improvement necessary to put it in first-class condition and is the place for Kentuckians.

TOM ROCHE has purchased from Anthony Thornton, the vacant lot in the rear of the Maj. Williams property and fronting the railroad, for $800.

Our merchants who don't advertise, came out this morning, looked at their shadows and went back into their holes to suffer for six weeks more.

In recognition of their valued services in the sweet and happy past, J. L. Taylor & Co. treated their clerks to a soup bone and spent their little extra change in repainting their store room.

The Northern and Southern Presbyterian churches at Mt. Sterling, are making an effort to unite, and call the Rev. H. M. Rogers, of Lockland, Ohio, to the pastoral charge.

NICK SNYDER had his right hand nearly torn away by the discharge of his gun while hunting near Mt. Sterling, Friday. His dog ran against the hammer of the gun and caused the accident.

MONDAY will be Court day. We hope that all of our friends to whom we sent spring chickens and tinted envelopes, will call in and argue the question with us in a "square up," manful manner.

With the exception of a few conscientious and straight forward business men, a basket of statements had just as well been scattered before a lot of fattening hogs as before a lot of newspaper subscribers. No offense, gentlemen, but this is a business fact.

THREE bare Italians in charge of two cinnamon bears, struck our bare streets yesterday, and gave the grand bear waltz. Many bare heads were stuck out of windows, but they were all pulled in barely in time to escape contributing a nickle to the passing hat.

TWENTY-ONE persons residing at Ashland, and many of the prominent citizens, have been indicted by the Boyd-county Grand Jury for confederating with and aiding and abetting the mob upon the occasion of their recent conflict with the State troops.

The great lake in Southern Kentucky known as Reel Foot Lake, has swallowed up a few more farms since the recent earthquake. An earthquake in 1811 first formed this lake by the sinking of several thousand acres of forest lands. It has been for years a great resort for ducks, geese and other game, and abounds in all kinds of fish.

ONE day last week, while a man named Wright who lives on Charlton Alexander's farm had stepped over to a neighbor's house, an unknown man with a handkerchief over his face went into his house and abstracted $75 from a bureau drawer, in the presence of Wright's two little children.

JIM BURNAW, one of the cleverest drummers that ever fingered a pair of hose, a necktie, silk handkerchief, pair of suspenders or anything else in the wholesale notion line, has amputated his services from the employment of Bell, Miller & Co., and can now be found behind the counters of K. Hirshman, wholesale notion dealer, 85 Race Street, Cincinnati, where he would be happy to greet all of his old trade and Kentucky friends.

OPERETTA—"Red Riding Hood's Rescue; or the danger of disobedience," was rendered by the pupils of the Convent, in this city, on the night of January 31st, in a style that would do credit to older members on the boards. The house was crowded with an appreciative audience, and this, the Convent school, is rapidly gaining favour with the people. It is the place for girls who make women of worth in the world. Their school is growing rapidly.

CAPT. GEO. EVERETT, State Superintendent of convict labor on the Kentucky Central extension, was shot and killed near Winchester Tuesday. Everett had drawn his pistol in a quarrel with a negro workman, who grabbed the weapon, and as they struggled for its possession it was discharged with the above result. Mr. Everett was a former resident of Montgomery county, and during the war served as a Lieutenant in Capt. Pete Bramblett's company from Bourbon and Montgomery, and connected with the 4th Infantry of the Kentucky Brigade. He was also a brother of Pete Everett, the gallant raider. [LATER. Not dead.]

FIFTEEN out of nineteen items in the Millersburg department of the True Kentuckian Wednesday, had been published in the two preceding numbers of the BOURBON NEWS. Many of them were verbatim, while others were changed, but a little. The local columns also contained several verbatim locals and quite a number of "skinned" ones. D the dear, sweet Kentuckian—that regular Jesus sheet would only give proper credit and garble less of it's local news, it would then get cussed less by it's local patrons. The News guards strictly against publishing anything published in our local papers unless it is something worthy of giving credit for, and hopes in the future to be treated in the same courteous manner.

A dirty Scandal.

ABOUT the dirtiest scandal that has been unearthed in Kentucky for some time, dropped the bloom in November and ripened and rotted in over-matured fruit in Carlisle Tuesday. Dr. J. L. Robbins, of Myers' Station married a Miss Smart last October, and in November forced her at the muzzle of a pistol to a confession of incest with her brother before marriage. The Dr. also forced at the muzzle of a pistol seven notes of $150, each covered by land mortgage, payable to himself, as a bonus for living with her and the protection of her name in future, from his wife's brother, John Smart. Now suit has been brought in Court for setting aside the notes and mortgage on the grounds of fraud and intimidation. Mrs. Robbins has gone to Missouri, and her dear Dr. is lurking at the home of his father in the county. The sheriff has a warrant charging him with robbery, in his hands for the arrest of Robbins.

Some Plain Facts.

We have figured carefully on the actual cost of the News, and find that the paper, postage, and all things incident thereto, aggregate $1.75 to each subscriber. We sell it for $2 in advance and make the insignificant sum of 25 cents. Hundreds of subscribers don't pay in advance, but "pay in a few days," which, in many cases amounts to months; then it takes twenty cents worth of stamps and stationery sent out as duns, to collect the profit of five cents, and frequently we have a subscriber who insists on acting a thief and scoundrel over so small an amount as two dollars. Verily this is a peculiar world, and it is dotted all over here and there with men without the slightest conception of honor, principle or gentility. The idea of an editor surrendering all manliness and making a gush-flunky out of himself and monkeying to the whims of every darned fool for the simple sum of five cents, is ridiculous. It is not within the scope of journalism or true manliness to have to puff every little scallawag as "the popular" and "efficient" Mr. Bombfuzzle has a new hoe handle, stove-pipe or broad ax; or, the "vivacious" little Miss Spitfire took dinner across the street yesterday. No, Sir! That is different from our idea of journalism. A journalist is one who disseminates intelligence, collates the news, analyzes questions of local and national importance, deduces opinions, and seeks to elevate society to a standard high above that little one-horsed gossip business that sees nothing but prices in society and three-legged chickens in plebeian pestilence.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Mrs. Langtry will be in Louisville during lent.

Nothing in sight for the boards at our Opera House at present.

The less a man knows of a subject the more willing he is to argue.

Gov. Pattison won't allow any one to call him "Your Excellency."

The latest floral design for weddings is a yoke. It is pretty and suggestive.

Fully 5,000 people attended the opening of the Cincinnati Opera Festival.

During the past year 263 divorces were granted by the Circuit Court of St. Louis.

Ammonia and chloroform will restore the original color to garments faded by acids.

"Young-Man-of-Whose-Horses-Are-Afraid" is the name of an Indian chief out west.

An Alabama baby enjoys the unwonted luxury of having five living grandmothers.

ROBT. VAN WINKLE in Rip McWade, was immense. "May we all live long and been happy."

Twenty-three halls have been engaged in Louisville for mask balls on Mardi Gras night, February 6th.

He, she, or it say his, her, or it's shadow good this morning. Now look out for a whole flock of blizzards.

Had my body been guarded half so well in life as in death, I should not have been lying here.—[Garfield.]

Mike McCoolle, the once-famous pugilist, is now rolling cotton on the levee at New Orleans, La., and steamboating, for $50 per month.

Unless there is more marrying soon there will be a big crop of old maids to throw out on the visitor receiving community throughout the country!

A three-year-old girl in Arkansas has three well developed tongues. If the fellow who marries her is not deaf in the beginning, he'll soon be a goner.

Padding, wadding and corsets are avoided by fashionable girls, as it is the style now to have the figure look as natural and supple as possible.

Care-worn persons, students, weak and over-worked mothers will find in Brown's Iron Bitters a complete tonic, which gives strength and tone to the whole system.

A New York divorce lawyer's advertisement reads: "Hymeneal incompatibilities, as a specialty, carefully adjusted. 'Tis slavery to detain the hand after the heart hath fled."

Judge Holladay, Dr. McNew, Ben Robinson and Sheriff Brown, of Carlisle, attended the public exercises of the students of Visitation Academy, at this place Wednesday evening.

A Paris lady has a peculiar mode of reckoning time on Sunday. Last Sunday evening, about six o'clock, when asked what time it was, she replied: "Five minutes of Smith."

During the late cold snap, a boy out in the "Dark Corner" of Bourbon, popped the question as follows: "Miranda do you want to warm your feet against my back this winter?" And Miranda blushed and softly murmured: "It's going to be a terrible cold winter, John."

The new pale-green is a boon this season to blondes who are tired of pale-blue and white. Dark-red roses are much worn with it, and fine-tipped black shoes over silk hose to match. A beautiful dress of this description was made of pale-green tulle over the same tint in satin and trimmed with water-lilies.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

Jack Hook and Cyclone have taken up quarters at the Maysville trotting track. Corn is on the rise; it is now selling freely at $2.50 per barrel in Lexington.

Jack Hostetter, of Fayette, sold to Kennedy & Bedford, of Bourbon, 50 head of fat cattle to be delivered in May, at $6.00 hundred.

February 22d is the day fixed upon for Carver and Bogardus to shoot against each other at Louisville. The Blue Grass country will no doubt send down a delegation to witness it.

The stallion Hambrino (2:21), by Edward Everett, dam Mambina, who has been standing at Indianapolis for the past three seasons, is to be sent to Mr. W. H. Wilson, Cynthiana, Ky., where he will remain permanently in the stud.

Sheep suffer greatly from exposure, and need to be well housed, especially during storms. Throwing fodder on the ground is a wasteful practice. Racks can be made at small cost, and they will more than pay for themselves in a single winter.

MILLERSBURG.

John Jones left Wednesday for Arkansas.

Josh Barton is reported with the whooping cough.

Jim Rogers and Tom Paul have sold their saloon to a Mr. McCarthy.

The Cantata of Queen Esther will be rendered on evening of the 9th, at Bryan's Hall.

Lewis Ishmael, Sam James and Charlie Leer sold their tobacco at good prices. Ishmael received 12 cents all around.

Frank Johnson and wife have about concluded to move to the old homestead lately occupied by Wm. Johnson, Sr.

Abraham Barton will move back to his farm next week, and Miss Mollie Knight will make an extended visit to Indiana and Missouri.

When our town burns down right good once, it will then be time to consolidate enterprise with Carlisle, and organize a bucket brigade.

If it wasn't for this department of the News, the Kentuckian's Millersburg department would bear a striking resemblance to Job's turkey.

Charlie Clarke paid Andy Skillman yesterday $1,040.16 for 9,456 lbs. of tobacco, the product of seven acres—the first and best purchase in the precinct.

Harry Long and wife have discontinued boarding in the family of Josh Barton, and have gone to house keeping in the McMillan property on upper Main street, in Paris.

Since Prof. G. T. Gould returned from Texas with a new invoice of pupils, he has been regulating affairs. On Wednesday he expelled or dismissed seven girls for carrying notes to the boards.

Mrs. Mary Ware, of Covington, has taken board at the Fleming house. She has purchased a lot in the cemetery, where she will bury the remains of her son Sam, and those of her first husband, James Patterson.

Our citizens donated $55 to Will Feeback and family, who were recently burned out of house and home. The family being absent, nothing but one bed, a table and two chairs were saved from the flames.

R. A. Long, of Midway, will take possession of the Purnell House on the 15th inst., and on the 17th Mrs. Purnell will sell her surplus property at public sale. Mrs. Purnell and Miss Kate will remain at the house as boarders for a while.

Owing to the high protective tariff, the non-extension of the Bonded Whisky Bill, the uncertainty of the tobacco tax, the general surplus of religious literature in order to make things solid with the preacher, the Bourbon News now does duty in four families in several instances with a single copy. Where there should be four. There's nothing like making a master economical strike in the right direction. It paralyzes the editors heart and melts it with christian humility and makes him feel that he's lost his power and influence to do wrong in the future, and that he's nothing but a dishonored flunky tool of gushism to every scallawag out of jail.

A small colored child burned up in a tenant house on Kit Clay's farm Tuesday night.

A million dollars fire took place at the New York docks yesterday, creating great loss to Imman's Steamship line.

State Treasurer Vincent, of Alabama, is missing, and so is $227,000 of the people's money. Draw poker and cotton futures struck the Treasurer in a weak place.

A NICKLE saved is a nickle earned. Don't forget to call at my pleasant Tonsorial Parlor—fronting the Bourbon House, over Dow's store, and get a smooth, clean shave for ten cents. It is unnecessary to say that our old barber, Jim Frazier, cannot be excelled in his profession.
